ARTICLE 15

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

15.1 Definitions

15.1.1 For purposes of this Agreement, a "grievance" is defined as a dispute involving a specific provision or provisions of this Agreement. For purposes of this Article only, a "working day" is defined as any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or one of the Company recognized Holidays specified in Article 11 of this Agreement.

15.1.2 While the Company may agree to discuss with the Union other employment-related disputes that are not "grievances" under subsection (a) above, the Company shall not be obligated to hear or process the dispute as a grievance subject to the procedure specified in this Article.

General Provisions

15.2 Grievance Steps

The Union may initiate a grievance using the procedure specified below.

Grievances involving discharges must be submitted directly to Step 2 of the grievance procedure, in accordance with the requirements of subsection C below, unless the parties mutually agree that the grievance may be initiated at Step 1. Such grievances must in any event be filed within thirty (30) working days after the date of notification of termination.

15.2.1 Informal Resolution

Employees are encouraged to informally discuss potential grievances (excluding terminations) with their immediate supervisor. This must occur within ten (10) working days of the time that the employee becomes aware of (or reasonably should have become aware of) the incident giving rise to the issue. The employee and supervisor will have up to ten (10) additional working days from the day the issue is first raised with the supervisor to resolve the issue informally. Any resolution reached through the Informal Resolution process will be binding only for the particular grievance and shall not be considered precedent setting. Such settlements shall not be utilized in any legal or arbitration proceeding, except in connection with a claim that the settlement has been violated.

15.2.2 Step 1

- (1) If an issue was raised under subsection 15.1.1 above but could not be resolved informally between the employee and the supervisor within the ten (10) day working period provided for, the employee has thirty (30) working days after the end of that ten (10) day period to file a formal grievance with his or her supervisor.
- (2) If the issue was not informally discussed as provided in subsection 15.2.1 above, the Union has thirty (30) working days after the employee becomes aware of (or reasonably should have become aware of) the incident to file a Step 1 grievance.
- (3) At Step 1, the grievance shall be reduced to writing and the written grievance shall include the following information: the name of the grievant, what is being grieved, the action or occurrence complained of, the date(s) of that action or occurrence, the Article or Articles of the contract alleged to have been violated and the remedy requested.
- (4) The employee (if applicable), the Steward and the Company representative (or their designated representatives) within seven (7) working days will establish a date to meet and discuss the grievance. The Company will have ten (10) working days from the Step 1 meeting to respond to the grievance.
- (5) Any settlement or adjustment of a grievance at Step 1 shall be binding only for the particular grievance and shall not constitute precedent. Such settlements shall not be used in any legal or arbitration proceeding except in connection with a claim that the settlement has been violated.

15.2.3 Step 2

If the grievance is not settled at Step 1 or involves the discharge of an employee, the Union Representative shall submit the formal written grievance to the Human Resources Representative within thirty (30) working days following the Step 1 answer (or the date of notification of the discharge). The Human Resources Representative and the Union must, within seven (7) working days establish a date to meet to discuss the grievance. A management representative may also choose to attend this Step 2 Grievance Meeting. The Company will submit a written response to the Union Representative within ten (10) working days after this Step 2 meeting.

15.3 Arbitration

If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, and the matter at issue in the grievance is specifically made subject to arbitration in this Agreement, the Union may refer the matter to arbitration within sixty (60) working days from the Step 2 response by submitting an arbitration demand in accordance with the requirements of Article 15.

15.4 General Provisions

- A. The scope of a grievance may be enlarged or reduced at any Step if done in writing and with the mutual consent of the parties.
- B. If a grievance is not presented or processed within the time limits specified above, unless the parties have agreed to an extension of time in writing or the delay is caused by the party against whom the grievance is filed, the grievance and the issue(s) contained therein shall be considered settled and resolved.
- C. In the event the party against whom the grievance is filed fails to meet or respond to a grievance in accordance with the time limits specified above, and the grieving party wishes to maintain the grievance, the grieving party, at its option may consider the failure to respond as a denial of the grievance and advance the grievance to the next step. The time limits to advance the grievance to the next step of the grievance or arbitration procedure, however, will not start until receipt of the delayed response.
- D. All meetings in the grievance procedure will be held at times and places mutually agreeable to the parties. Grievance meetings may be conducted telephonically or by other "live" electronic means.
- E. No more than two (2) employees, including the steward, will normally be excused with pay during their scheduled hours to attend a grievance meeting on any given work day, and in all cases, whether or not an employee will be excused is subject to the needs of the business.
- F. Nothing in this Agreement in any manner affects the right of an individual employee or group of employees to present grievances to the Company under this Article nor affects the rights of the Union under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended. The Company agrees, however, that after a grievance arising under any provision of this Agreement has been referred to a Union Representative and such Representative has dealt with a Company Representative with respect thereto, no Company Representative will adjust or attempt to adjust the grievance with the employee or employees involved unless a Union Representative is first given an opportunity to be present at the adjustment.

15.5 Arbitration

- 15.5.1 Only the matters specifically made subject to arbitration in this Agreement may be arbitrated. Unless a matter has been specifically made subject to arbitration, it shall be deemed to be excluded from arbitration by this Agreement and such matter shall not be submitted to or considered an arbitration. In addition, Company discipline of its employees at the verbal and written warning levels shall not be subject to this arbitration process.
- 15.5.2 The parties will use the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and agree to abide by the rules as set forth by the AAA that govern the invocation of arbitration, the selection of the arbitrator and the conduct of the proceedings.
- 15.5.3 Either party may elect to have a stenographic transcript of the hearing(s) prepared and that party will pay the transcription cost. If both parties elect to have the hearing(s) transcribed, the cost of the transcription will be shared equally. If a party who did not elect transcription subsequently requests or otherwise obtains a copy, the cost of the transcription will be shared equally. In any case where a hearing is transcribed, the arbitrator will receive a copy of the transcript unless the parties agree otherwise. The Union will be allowed to review all transcripts for accuracy that the Company receives.
- 15.5.4 In making an award, the arbitrator's decision shall be governed by the express terms of this Agreement. In addition, the arbitrator may not add to, subtract from, modify or disregard any Agreement provision. An arbitrator may not accept or consider any evidence that would vary or change the plain meaning of an Agreement provision that is not ambiguous on its face. These limitations on the arbitrator's authority shall not prevent an arbitrator from interpreting a provision of this Agreement.
- 15.5.5 Scope and Retroactivity of Awards: An arbitrator's remedy shall be limited to the specific grievance submitted for arbitration. An arbitrator's determination may or may not be retroactive as the equities of the particular case shall demand, but in any case where the determination is retroactive, the retroactive effect or relief shall be limited to two (2) weeks prior to the date the grievance is submitted at Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

- 15.5.6 The compensation and expenses of the arbitrator, any fees or charges imposed by the American Arbitration Association, and any charge incurred for arbitration facilities shall be borne equally by the Union and the Company. Each party will otherwise bear its own expenses.
- 15.5.7 The decision of an arbitrator made in accord with the provisions of this Agreement shall be final and binding upon the parties. The Union and its members and the Company agree to abide by such decisions, which shall be enforceable by appropriate action or proceeding, if necessary, in a court of law or equity or otherwise.
- 15.5.8 If a case is withdrawn from arbitration, such withdrawal shall settle the grievance(s) and resolve any issue(s) contained therein unless the parties expressly agree to a different disposition.

ARTICLE 16

LAYOFFS

- 16.1 When the Company finds it necessary to lay off employees, the Company and the Union will meet and discuss alternatives (including part timing) to avoid such lay off. If no plan can be agreed upon during these discussions the procedure set forth below shall be followed:
- 16.2 The Company will give the Union twenty-one (21) days' notice of its intentions to adjust the working force. The meeting required under Section 1 above shall take place as soon as practical, but no later than seven (7) days after notice is given to the Union. Thereafter the Company will commence the layoff process. It is understood the Company has the sole authority to determine the number of employee(s), and which classifications, will be impacted by the required layoff(s). Reduction in the workforce will be made in the following manner:
- Temporary employees will be terminated first. Part-time employees will be terminated next. If additional reduction is necessary, seniority will prevail, providing the employee has the skill, ability, and knowledge to perform the work, which is available.
- 16.3 Nothing in this Article shall be construed as prohibiting the Company and the Union from modifying by mutual agreement in writing, the procedure for layoff.
- 16.4 When the Company finds it necessary to lay off employees, the following termination allowance will apply:

 - B. Reassignment of regular employees to permanent headquarters fifty (50) miles or more from the employee's permanent headquarters.

 - B No comparable assignment available within fifty (50) miles of the former permanent headquarters and/or refusal of reassignment to a new permanent headquarters fifty (50) miles or more from the former permanent headquarters.

employee is continued in the employment of the new management of the exchange or office.

9. An employee's election to leave the service of the Company and receive termination pay benefits must be in writing and transmitted to the Company within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the Company's offer in order to be effective, and it may not be revoked after such fourteen (14) calendar day period.
